

For Immediate Release:

CyberJudaism.org—The Greatest Thing Since Sliced Challah

What would an Online Jewish Community look like in the 21st Century? What would users find there? What would content providers offer? How would brick-and-mortar Jewish organizations use the site to enhance their outreach and their effectiveness?

One thing is certain: An Online Jewish COMMUNITY would be created BY THE JEWISH COMMUNITY and it would be available to a WORLDWIDE JEWISH COMMUNITY.

CyberJudaism.org—“Where the Jewish World Comes Together” has launched its demo site with an opportunity for you to give feedback BEFORE the live site is created. YOU can help create the future of global mainstream Judaism. We invite you to explore the site and:

- Give your feedback and input
- Forward this email to your friends in the Jewish Community
- Link to CyberJudaism.org on your webpage, your linkedin/facebook/twitter/myspace pages
- Volunteer any helpful skills you have to bring CyberJudaism.org to fruition
- Become a CONTENT PROVIDER on CyberJudaism.org by:
 - Setting up an online office
 - "ShulCasting" your synagogue services
 - Teaching
 - Setting up an online booth for your Jewish Charity or Jewish Social Justice organization
 - Selling your Judaica on CyberJudaism's Global Online Jewish Marketplace
 - Selling your writing in CyberJudaism's Unpublished Works Library
- Conceptualize ideas for CyberJudaism.org that we haven't even thought of yet

Community participation is essential, and you are invited to be in on the ground floor of this endeavor.

And just for providing this feedback, you'll even receive free access to CyberJudaism.org's Beta site when it is launched!

With gratitude, anticipation, and excitement,

The CyberJudaism.org team

<http://www.cyberjudaism.org/About-Us.html>